Instructions: You play as a space fighter pilot and must destroy the various enemies you encounter in the game. Upon reaching the end of the level, you must face the boss. There are multiple powerup in the game such as the health, life and weapon power ups over the course of the game. Also, the player is required to hit the boss at specific locations. For example, in the first level the player is required to shoot at the turrets which fires bullets at the players to destroy the boss in the first level. In the second level, the player needs to fire at the turrets of the boss jet, there are four at the back end and one on each side at the wings. The turrets flash red when firing, an indication that they are a weak point for the player to target.
